There are things that God wants to do in your life and in your school that will only happen through prayer. If your school is going to be touched by the power of God this year, it will be because you and others have committed your lives to prayer.

List ways you can most effectively pray for your school.

Because seeing my friends and classmates come to Christ is a high priority, I am going to spend at least _____ minutes each day praying for my school.

My goals for spiritual involvement in school (check the options that you are going to make personal goals):

- To make a positive identification with Christ on my campus.
- To spend extra time in prayer each morning for God's guidance in witnessing opportunities.
- To look for opportunities to share Jesus daily.
- To live so that others can see Jesus.
- To use any classroom as an opportunity to share Christ.
- To use extracurricular involvements as an opportunity to share Christ (sports, music, student government, etc.).
- To invite friends to my church or youth group ministry.
- To carry my Bible at school.
- To focus my attention, not only on students, but also on teachers and the administration.
- To start or attend a Christian club on my campus.
- To put others first.
